Intelligence wing for Cast Guards

406. SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMB-HAJIRAO SHINDE: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether (he Coast Guard, responsible for guarding over 7,000 kms of coastline does not maintain an independent intelligence wing of its own;

(b) if so. whether in view of incre'-tsing smuggling activity across the Indian coa sts, especially th elarge quantities of RDX-smnggling which cu'mmated in series of blnsls in Bombay and elsewhere in the country las! year, Government propose' to raise ::n independent intelligence Winger" she Coast Guard; and

(c) what other steps are being f.akent to make coast guard impenetrable?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI MAL-I.IKARJUN): (a) to (c) The Coast Guard i alongwith Navy are responsible for guarding the en'ire coast-line of India. There is no proposal for raising an independent Intelligence Wing of the Coast Guard. However, the Coast Guard coordinates its activities with Intelligence Bureau. the-Directorate of Revenue Intelligence and Naval Intelligence from which it receives intelligence inputs, and also relies oninformation given by fishermen for apprehending foreign trawlers. A number of sbipsjboats and aircraft are planned for induction to enhance their capability, as per the Coast Guard Development 1992-97.
